

HAVE DOUBLED STOCK
OF HARNESS COMPANY

JOHN C. NICHOLS COMPANY HAS INCREASED CAPITAL FROM $25,000 TO $50,000.

SECURE NEW LOCATION

Plan to Move to Building Vacated by Janesville Grocery Company on North High Street by May 1.

Indications of the rapid growth of the John C. Nichols Company are shown by an increase of a hundred per cent in the capital stock of the company and the leasing of the building recently vacated by the Janesville Wholesale Grocery Company on North High street with the purpose of moving from the present quarters in the Norcross building on South River street by May 1.

The increase in the capital stock is made from $25,000 to $50,000. This decision was made possible only by the active support of the Commercial Club and through the personal efforts and solicitations of Secretary F. E.
Lano.

The whole matter of increasing the stock and making other needed improvements has been under consideration by Mr. Nichols and the di-

PROTESTED AGAINST
WOMAN'S LABOR LAW

Representatives of Wisconsin Pea Packers' Association State Their Case to Commission.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Madison, Wis., March 28.—The pea packing interests in Wisconsin will have to look to the 1913 legislature
for redress from the present exactions of the women's labor law. A committee conferred yesterday with members of the state industrial commission relative to concessions in the enforcement of the law limiting the hours of labor for women and girls to ten in the daytime and eight at night, or fifty-five hours a week. It was contended that in the height of the pea canning season the incoming stock must be handled with great dispatch to save it from spoiling, and unless longer hours for the female labor are allowed the packers are liable to stand large financial loss. The commission informed the packing representatives that it was powerless to change the law or to relax in its rigid enforcement, and that their only recourse is in the legislature. The Wisconsin Pea Packers' association was represented by W. C. Lelach, and President A. M. Doherty, Columbus; M. S. Bailey, Chippewa Falls, and Karl Stoecker, son of Supreme Court Justice R. G. Stoecker, Madison.

NEW BEDFORD FACES
COTTON MILL STRIKE

Another Massachusetts City Will be Tied Up Owing to Difficulties
With Textile Workers.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

New Bedford, Mass., March 28.—
The possibility of the strike of thousands of the thirty thousand cotton mill operatives of this city was faced by the New Bedford Manufacturers' association, which met today to again consider the demands of the mill workers for an increase of ten per cent in wages. The workers have refused to accept an increase of five per cent granted by the manufacturers and are said to remain firm in their demand for a ten per cent increase.

Strike at Lowell.

Lowell, Mass., March 28.—The first destruction of mill property since the beginning of the strike of textile workers and the resulting shutdown
of half a dozen cotton mills, took place
today during a parade of several hundred strikers. Windows were broken in the factory of the Blawie Carpet Company and in the United States Holbin and Shuttle company's plant. One man was hurt. One man was arrested on a charge of malicious destruction of property.

Trouble is Avoided.

Philadelphia, March 28.—A strike
among textile workers in the Kennington mill district of this city has been avoided by the action of the upholstery workers' union in accepting a compromise offered by the mill owners.
The men asked for an increase in wages from 24 to 25 cents an hour, a reduction in working hours from 67 to 54 a week and other concessions. The employers conceded only the wage demand.

LABOR LEADER URGES
MUTINY; IS ARRESTED

Englishman Out on $2,000 Bail For Inciting Soldiers to Mutiny Against Government.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Salford, Eng., March 28.—Tom Munn, the labor leader, was today released on $2,000 bail after giving a written guarantee that pending his trial he would not repeat his incitement to the troops to mutiny.
He is charged with "intentionally, maliciously and unlawfully publishing certain printed matter endeavoring to persuade persons serving in the forces of the King on land and sea from their duty and allegiance to his majesty and inducing the said persons to commit treasonous and mutinious acts."

NIKISHCH ORCHESTRA STARTS
ON LONG AMERICAN TOUR.

Famous London Conductor and Hundred Members of Orchestra
Sailed For New York
Today.

London, March 28.—Arthur Nikish, the famous musical conductor and the members of the London Symphony Orchestra, one hundred strong, with all their valuable instruments, which alone are insured for more than half a million dollars, are among the passengers of the liner Baltic, which sailed today for New York. The famous orchestra, under his brilliant leader,
will make a concert tour of twenty-
one days through the United States and Canada, traveling as far as Montreal to the West and Toronto and Montreal to the North.

Arkansas Elects Robinson in Place of Former Executive Who Runs
for Re-election.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Little Rock, Ark., March 28.—Returning from yesterday's democratic primary received from the majority of the districts throughout Arkansas, indicated conclusively that Congressman Joe T. Robinson has defeated Governor George W. Donaghey, who was a candidate for re-election. United States Senator Jeff Davis apparently leaves his rival, R. Brundage, by a majority of at least 30,000.

SENATOR JACOB GALLINGER
SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS OF AGE.

Veteran of United Senate Celebrated Birthday Today—Ranks Next to Cullom.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Washington, D. C., March 28.—Congratulations were in order today for Senator Jacob H. Gallinger of New Hampshire, on the occasion of his seventy-fifth birthday anniversary.
Senator Gallinger is one of the veterans of the upper house. In years, he is surpassed only by two members, Cullom of Illinois and Stephenson of Wisconsin, while in point of service
Senator Cullom alone tops the record of the New Hampshire member.

EXPECT CAPTURE OF
ALLEN OUTLAWS IN MOUNTAINS TODAY

Detectives Confident That Hiding
Place in Blue Ridge Will be Reached After Long Search.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Hillsville, Va., March 28.—"We will get them today," was the promise made this morning of the detectives on the trail of what is left of the Allen gang.
Fifty-four men are making their way
on foot through thickets and over rough trails began closing in on the spot high up in the Blue Ridge Mountains, in which Sidna and Friel Allen and Wesley Edwards are supposed to have found their last hiding place.
Across on the North Carolina line near Mt. Airy, Sheriff Hayes of Sur-reys county, has a posse of fifty men awaiting until they get word to join the searchers. What shall be made of this force will be decided by today's developments. A posse of a few miles away held court a few miles north of this morning to enter a minor, adjourning until April 23, the special term of Carroll county court.
At that time a date will be set for the trial of Victor Allen, Sidna Allen and Fred Marion.

TROOP OF CHINESE
START RIOT TODAY

Five Hundred Men Stationed Near Shanghai, Left Barracks on Tour of Pilgrimage and Looting.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Shanghai, China, March 28.—A body of five hundred soldiers belonging to the garrison at Su Chow, about fifty miles northwest of this city, mutinied today. They left the barracks and raided the principal streets, looting
most of the pawn shops and they also set fire to a number of private residences.

Each Imperialist.
London, March 28.—"Recognizing the impotence of the existing regime, capitalists of south China," says a news agency dispatch received here today from Tientsin, "are anxiously backing a project for the restoration
to the throne of the Manchu imperial family."

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Valencia, Spain, March 28.—A strike broke out today among the employees of the Northern railway of Spain. Four thousand men employed on the line in this city and surrounding districts left work. They demand an increase of twenty-five per cent in wages.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION
LAW GIVEN TO COMMITTEE

Illinois Senate Passes Presidential Preference Law and Refers it to House Primary Committee.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Springfield, Ill., March 28.—The presidential preference primary law, which passed the senate at the midnight session this morning, carrying an emergency clause, was reported to the house today, ordered printed and referred to the house committee on primary elections.

The house primary election committee voted today favorably two primary bills—one the bill which passed the senate, the other Representative Chip-pelle's house bill. The committee agreed to give the senate bill preference because of its advanced stage.
The senate bill will be read a second time tomorrow and Saturday will be placed upon final passage by the house.

SUGAR TRUST CASE IS

Refining Co. Defendant.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

New York, March 28.—The defense
in the government's suit against the American Sugar Refining Co., charged with violating the criminal clause of the Sherman anti-trust law, rested its case with the testimony of Mr. Parson former chief counsel for the company. The district attorney called for but a single witness, Samuel Un-dermyer, in rebuttal and counsel for the defense began its summing up.

PANIC DEMAND FOR COAL HAS SUBSIDED

Eve of Strike in Anthracite Fields Finds Trade Fairly Quiet After Recent Buying Rush.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

New York, March 28.—On the eve of a suspension of work in the anthracite coal region because of the inability of the operators and the miners to come to an agreement on the wage scale and certain working conditions, wholesale dealers and shippers said today that the coal panic
among consumers had practically subsided.
The eager buyers of coal have laid in their supplies and the demand for anthracite coal in this market has fallen off. Coal is coming into the market in large quantities and is now quite easily obtained. The early strike has caused an unusual demand
but it is said that this has subsided.
Ready to Quit.

Shamokin, Pa., March 28.—Miners started today taking tools from the coal mines in the Schuylkill section in anticipation of suspension of work on Saturday. Some foreigners are departing for Europe where they will remain until the expected labor troubles in the coal fields are over.

The United Mine Workers are waiting the return of John Paby, president of district number nine and his colleagues from Cleveland and to direct their movements in the expected suspension.

Strike Inevitable.
New York, March 28.—It was learned here today from an authentic source that anthracite coal operators are making no move to prevent a suspension of work in the anthracite fields and they regard such a suspension at midnight on March 31, as inevitable.

In Anthracite Field.
Cleveland, March 28.—Hopes of averting a widespread coal strike in the United States beginning next Monday centered today in a subcommittee
which had been appointed by lithuminous operators and miners to agree,
if possible on a compromise wage scale.

"A strike in the anthracite field may be said already to have been ordered,"
said John P. White, president of the United Mine Workers of America.
"That much of the situation is settled automatically and it requires no further referendum vote of the union or action by the policy committee. The anthracite men understand thoroughly
no wage scale exists upon which they can continue to work after Sunday night and they accordingly must quit."

Unable to Agree.
The subcommittee this afternoon
announced that it was unable to agree and it would so report to the full conference at three o'clock. The members said their agreement had brought about a continuation of the deadlock
as the operators and miners repeated their positions of a week ago.

LA CROSSE FEELS EFFECT
OF THE COAL FAMINE NOW

La Crosse, March 28.—The coal famine is already felt here. Not a ton of anthracite coal can be bought at La Crosse today and dealers were obliged to refuse all orders. The lithuminous supply in the hands of dealers is also practically exhausted.

POSSE SEEKING FOR
ARMED INSANE MAN

Kansas Maniac Being Hunted by Sheriff and Posse After Killing
Brother and Brother-in-Law.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Sallina, Kans., March 28.—Sheriff
Burke, heading a posse of a dozen men, started today in pursuit of an insane man, who was believed to be hiding in the hills and had just killed
his brother and brother-in-law.
The man forced an entrance to the home of John Peterson, a farmer near Gypsum City and compelled the farmer's wife to prepare him a lunch.
Seizing a shot gun and filling his pockets with cartridges, he exclaimed,
"I'll need these, I have killed my brother and brother-in-law."

He then departed, threatening to kill any person who would aid him.
He is believed to be hiding in the marshes in the southern part of the county.

ENGINEERS' STRIKE
MAY RAISE RATES

Railroads Refuse to Raise Wages on (Present Freight Rates and Engineers May Strike.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

New York, March 28.—Warren S.
Stone, grand chief of the brotherhood of locomotive engineers predicted here today that when the results of the strike vote on the wage question is made public here on April 10, it will be found that fewer than 2,500 men of the 20,000 engineers in the brotherhood oppose a strike. "It is significant," said Mr. Stone, "that in none of our conferences with the eastern railway representatives, have they once declared that our demands are unjust.
They do not say we do not need the increase; they say merely that they can't afford to grant it because they are not allowed increased freight rates. The Interstate commerce commission stands in the way of any raise, and as the commission represents the public
it is really the public that is the stumbling block. That is why I repeat that the public needs an object lesson to convince them that the roads are entitled to more pay for the freight they carry. Freight rates are bound to go up."

DOMINICAN REPUBLIC
IS ALMOST PEACEFUL

Very Little Disturbance in Republic
Except on Northwestern Border
Where Raiders Are Working.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Puerto Plata, Dominican Republic,
March 28.—Except for a handful of revolutionaries on the northwestern border, peace reigns throughout the country. The revolutionaries include the assassins of the late president Car-era and they frequently harass the government troops and afterward retreat into Haiti. It is alleged that some of the rebels who have been captured have been supplied with weapons and cartridges belonging to the government forces. It is stated that the former provisional president Horacio Vasquez is at the head of the movement.

On the river Tyno, whose surface
is usually covered with vessels coming in or going out, no fewer than one hundred and thirty-two steamers are
loaded, and in addition to the miners
there are forty thousand men unemployed.

The condition of things has brought about a serious split in the ranks of
the labor party and has strained the
relations between the miners and
other trade unionists.

OPPOSE WITHDRAWAL
OF STATE MILITIA

City and County Officials at Rock Island Believe Protection Is Needed Until After Election.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Rock Island, Ill., March 28.—After a quiet night citizens of Rock Island today discussed with Mayor Schriber and Sheriff Bruner the possibility of further riot trouble and the question of how long soldiers of the Sixth regiment will be needed to preserve order.

Many business men favored withdrawal of the militia but the city and county officials would not listen to this proposal. Others said they believed it would be necessary to hold the militia until after the primary election, April 8th.

Although soldiers and deputy sheriffs made scores of arrests in the railway yards and along the river front
last night there were no disturbances worthy of comment.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Madison, Wis., March 28.—Those in charge of the special demonstration
train of the Wisconsin Livestock Breeders' association were greatly gratified by the large crowds of famers who met the train at its stops
starting out last Monday.
Audiences are estimated as follows:
Lancaster, 300; Dodgeville, 100; Pondemon, afternoon and evening, 400 and 600; Livingston, 500. The train spent this morning at Mt. Horeb and went to Lad for the afternoon. Tomorrow it will visit Roadburg, Norwalk and Sparta, and on Saturday
will be at West Salem and Galoisville.
A similar train will later on be operated in upper Wisconsin.

Horse breeders' associations were organized at several places on the route this week.

UNVEIL MONUMENT TO

Charleston, S. C., March 28.—An imposing monument in memory of General Wade Hampton, a gift to the City of Charleston by the local chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy, was unveiled today, on the ninety-fourth anniversary of the birth of the distinguished South Carolina soldier and statesman. The monument occupies a conspicuous site in Marion Square. The unveiling was accompanied with interesting but modest ceremonies. The oration of the day was delivered by Dr. S. C.

END OF STRIKE IS SEEN IN ENGLAND;
MUST RELIEVE WANT

Work Will be Resumed in Pits as Soon as Vote Can be Taken—
No Time to Lose in Preventing Suffering.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

London, Eng., March 28.—The end of the coal strike which has so severely affected many millions of the population of the United Kingdom during the last four weeks, is believed to be at hand.

No doubt appears to exist in the minds of many people that the minority of the million miners who left their work on March 1, are anxious to return to the pits and when the occasion offers will vote in favor of the proposal to resume work.

Most of the miners, it is believed, would even return to the pits immediately, but in each district there is a small section who oppose any action until the question of resumption of work, or continuation of the strike, has been passed and counted.

It is these people who are causing the trouble which necessitated the despatch of troops to Chirk in Wales where work has been proceeding for some days in the Brynkinalt collieries and in Cannock in the Midlands,
where efforts were made last night
to prevent the men working.

Other owners are opening their mines today and men who wish to begin work will receive full protection from the government. In the great military post at Aldershot, ten thousand soldiers are held in readiness to move at any moment to any point in the country and at other military posts similar arrangements have been made.

More urgent than even the necessary for protecting the miners is the very heavy duty facing the country of relieving the terrible destitution caused everywhere by the strike. People are living in virtual starvation in various parts of the country. The settlement can come none too soon for the two million people besides the miners who have been thrown out of employment, at least do not belong to any trade organization and therefore have received no out of work benefit.

On the river Tyne, whose surface
is usually covered with vessels coming in or going out, no fewer than one hundred and thirty-two steamers are
loaded, and in addition to the miners
there are forty thousand men unemployed.

The condition of things has brought
about a serious split in the ranks of
the labor party and has strained the
relations between the miners and
other trade unionists.

Urges Acceptance.
Premier Asquith this morning issued an appeal to the miners of Great Britain to accept the minimum wage bill, which he said would affect largely by what they had sought for. The premier made this appeal in a speech to the liberal members of the house of commons. The premier said he recognized that the agitation as far as the great bulk of the men were concerned, was a disinterested movement.

Now that their grievances had been removed by the establishment of the principle of a minimum wage with machinery which could be trusted to fix reasonable rates, he strongly appealed in the name of the whole community for the resumption of normal industrial conditions.

The house of Lords this afternoon,
passed the miners' minimum wage bill without amendments. It has now only to receive royal assent.

LORIMER COMMITTEE

Committee Resumes Case of Illinois
Senator's Seat in Senate and Expect Report Today.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Washington, March 28.—The Senator Lorimer committee today resumed consideration of the case of the junior senator from Illinois with the expectation that a report might be voted upon before adjournment. A test vote in the committee yesterday seemed to indicate the committee stood five to three in favor of Senator Lorimer.

Under those circumstances it is certain that majority and minority reports will be made. Friends of Senator Lorimer attached confident that he would retain his seat.

CARDINALS TO PLAY
ALBANY LAST GAME

Fast Team From Albany Dispute Cardinals' Title for Southern Wisconsin Championship.

Manager Langdon of the Lakota Cardinals has at last arranged for the long desired game with the Albany team and they will play here Saturday night. Albany has a fast team this year and have succeeded in beating the Monroe team which has been especially strong during the past season. As the Cardinals have beaten everything around this part of the country and claim the undisputed championship of southern Wisconsin, they have wanted a game with Albany quite a while but have been unable to make arrangements. This is the last game of the season for the Cardinals and they must win it to hold their reputation solid for being the best team in this part of the state so the local fans are expecting a good game to end the season with.

Milton Junction Team Proves Easy Mark For Janesville Y. M. C. A. Intermediates.

Milton, March 27.—The Janesville intermediates played the All Stars of Milton Junction a game of basket ball in the college "gym" last night. The game was very one-sided, the Janesville boys shooting baskets almost at will. The game ended in a score of 21 to 5 although Janesville undoubtedly could have run up a larger score if they had so desired.

The Little Giants of Milton Junction played the Whitewater Little Fellows a game as the curtain raiser for the Janesville game. The game was fast and interesting. Whitewater won by the score of 22 to 18, but it was anybody's game until the last few minutes of play. Hartwell refereed.

GEORGE CARPENTIER
NEW FRENCH CHAMPION.

Paris.—George Carpentier, the 18-year-old marvel who recently knocked out Jim Sullivan, lightweight champion of England, before an audience of 30,000 at Monte Carlo, is the idol of the hour in his native country. Throughout the fight with Sullivan he showed a superiority in generalship and knowledge of the game and the necessary punch which put the Englishman out of business.

BASEBALL NOTES.

A pitcher named Bagby, who can pitch with either arm, is working out with the Cincinnati Reds.

The Jersey City team had a stormy voyage and many players suffered from seasickness on the trip to Bermuda.

Condie Mack will try out Walter Frantz, a young brother of Orville Frantz, Harvard's old first baseman. On account of the heavy rains in Atlanta, Manager Wolverton had to shift his Highlanders to the Market college baseball ground.

If first baseman Del Gahner can catch the stop, Hugh Jennings believes his Detroit Tigers will march to the front and lead the American league.

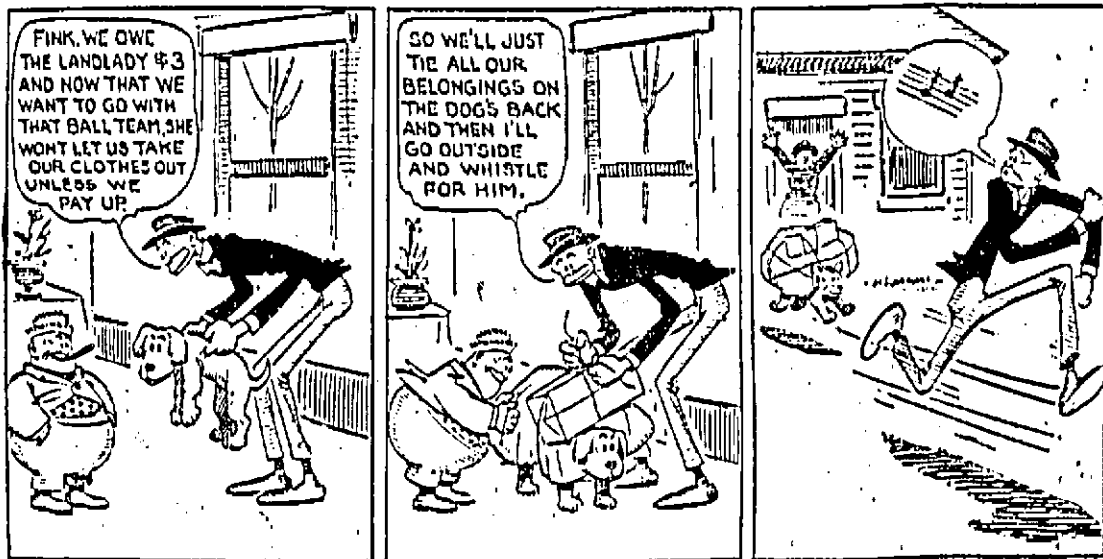

Moran, Northern and Wheat have been working together as the regular outfield for the Brooklyn Superbas, and have delivered some fine work in the meadows.

FELIX AND FINK—It Was A Good Start But A Bad Finish.

March 28, 1912.—The area of low atmospheric pressure that was in the southern Plateau region yesterday has now moved eastward to Texas and the lower Mississippi valley. It is attended by showers and thunderstorms in the south central and Gulf states. The atmospheric pressure continues low in the Northwest, and the weather is cloudy and unsettled along the Canadian border from the Lake Itasca region to the Pacific. There have been light sprinkles around Lake Michigan and Lake Superior and snow flurries in Manitoba and Saskatchewan. In this vicinity the weather will be cloudy and unsettled tonight and Friday, probably with rain tonight or Friday.

WILLIE RITCHIE
WOLCAST NAMES RITCHIE AS OPPONENT.

When Ad. Wolcast is again in condition to do battle his first opponent will probably be Willie Ritchie. This is the statement that comes from the Wolcast camp. It will certainly not be Jon Rivers the Mexican lightweight, because of the fight now on between Wolcast's manager, Tom Jones and Tom McCreary of Los Angeles who has made an offer for the Wolcast.

Movement of the Air.
The movement of air is variously designated, according to its velocity, as a zephyr, breeze, wind, gale or hurricane. With these designations are added, slight, moderate or thick. A dense or thick fog, according to the weather bureau, obscures objects at a distance of 1,000 feet.

Chinese Glass Industry.
As far as the development of the glass industry in China is concerned, five factories have been erected in recent years in the neighborhood of Peking, two of which are in Japanese hands. Their products are mostly sold in the province of Chihli.

Seems Profitable Investment.
It is estimated that at a cost of $200,000 fully 160,000 acres of good land within a reasonable distance of Savannah can be drained and made productive of cotton to the annual value of more than $3,000,000.

Eggs Many Years Old.
A somewhat remarkable discovery was made in demolishing the Judiciary buildings in Jail square, Glasgow, hidden among the rafters was a hen's nest containing 10 eggs, which those who know say must have lain there for about forty years. When exposed to the air the eggs dissolved into dust.

For Your Spring Work

Have you learned how "Chicago AA" Portland Cement is made? It is a story of great interest to the man who uses cement. It tells how the raw materials are taken from the quarries; how they are weighed, proportioned, crushed and conveyed to the mills; it describes the "Chicago AA" process of drying, grinding and then burning the raw mixture to a "clinker" and explaining in an interesting way, the method of cooling the "clinker" and grinding and re-grinding it, thus producing "Chicago AA" Portland Cement—"the best that can be made."

Read this story:—
It will enable you to better appreciate the superiority of the "Double A" brand—it will guide you in the selection of a cement for your work in the future.

IS THIS REPUBLICANISM?

Roosevelt is out to defeat Taft. That and his own self-interest to gain be in the limelight is the reason for his appearance in the political field at this time. The colonel has evidenced this from time to time, but never more clearly than yesterday in Chicago. He had been informed that the Indiana state republican convention had decided against him. That the much-sought-for primaries in his own state, New York, had declared against him. That Colorado had decided to send instructed delegates for Taft to the Chicago convention, and he broke forth. Perhaps his defeat in the great primary in North Dakota where his erstwhile friend, La Follette, trimmed him up and trussed the bundle of votes for his own personal use rankled in his brain, but at any rate he decided that he himself was greater than a political party. That his becoming a presidential candidate was of even more consequence than the will of the people he calls his friends. Read the following telegraphic dispatch from Chicago, which gives an account of his meeting there last night, and see if you do not draw the same conclusions:

"Col. Theodore Roosevelt will be a candidate for president this fall, if he carries out a thinly veiled threat he made here today. He will be the candidate of the republican party, or a candidate of a third party against the republican nominee."

"The colonel served what seemed to all who heard him, notice that he will be the nominee of the republican party, or he will start a party of his own. He put in a qualifying phrase, but it was such a qualification that cannot intervene. He promised that he would remain quiet and regular if he is defeated by direct primaries. But as only a few states can have direct primaries, his reservation seems of no effect."

"If the people decide this contest the way I think they ought not to do," was Col. Roosevelt's significant statement. "I will think they are unwise, but I will have nothing to say. But if we are defeated by the juggling work of bosses, then I will have a great deal to say."

"The colonel made that statement before a meeting of between 450 and 500 of the product committee of Chicago. And he repeated it in substance before an audience he addressed in the auditorium at night. It seemed to be one of things upon which his mind runs; a thing upon which he is determined."

"Careful efforts had been made to have a great demonstration for the colonel, only, as it sometimes happens, the business was overdone. Tickets were printed for the meeting and distributed—20,000 or thereabouts were given out, sent out and distributed for 5,000 cents. The crowd began piling up in Congress street and Wabash avenue at five o'clock in the afternoon. When the doors of the auditorium were opened one grand rush carried everybody headlong for the theatre."

Is this republicanism? Is this the kind of man that the voters of this country want to place at the head of their national affairs?

ONE GRAND OPPORTUNITY.

The present council has one grand opportunity to retire with a blaze of glory if they so desire by passing an anti-sneer ordinance. If they really wish to have their name go down to posterity as the "Do and Dare" they could very easily do so by having a copy made of the Hollet ordinance on this subject and see that it is rigidly enforced. Come on gentlemen, do something that will be noteworthy and worth while before you retire to private life. Now is the time. You are revising the city ordinances and could do this just as well as not.

THE WATER WORKS.

The voters of the city are urgently solicited to look into the question of the purchase of the water works before voting on this question next Tuesday. If they wish to saddle the city with another financial burden why vote in favor of the purchase. If, however, they stop and consider what would be the results they will vote against it. The question of municipal ownership of public utilities is a burning question for discussion. However, stop and consider that if Janesville did own the local water works, the income derived from the sale of the water at the rates fixed by the commission would barely pay interest and leave a small balance with which to retire the bonds at the end of the twenty years and nothing practically for repairs and up-keep of the plant. This is the most important feature to be considered. It will be a great deal more economical for the city not to own the water works and let the private corporation make the repairs and the state railway commission fix the rates than to have to do all this from the city funds and not be any the wiser.

TUESDAY'S ELECTION.

On Tuesday next the voters of Janesville are to select a mayor and two councilmen to conduct the city affairs for the coming two years. Care should be taken to select the men best qualified for the office. The voter should consider carefully what the requirements will be and what will be expected of the officers elected and then make their choice accordingly. It is an abrupt change from the old system of a council paramount in city affairs to a commission and the same methods of selecting city officials can not be followed. It should be a plain business affair in which personal sentiment should play no part.

Governor McGovern is considering the advisability of appointing a woman as a member of the State Board of Agriculture. It has been the opinion of the general public that there have been several old women on the board for some time past that it might be well to ditch, and name more progressive young men in their places. Think it over governor.

Janesville now has four fixed events. The "Made in Janesville" week, the chicken show, the mid-week fair, and the auto exhibit. With these for the winter months and prospects of a half dozen trotting and race-meets, including auto and motor cycles, at the Park association grounds during the summer, the city has something to offer to the general public worth while.

By the way, has the council stopped to consider that in making all its appropriations for the coming fiscal year it did not arrange for the payment of the salaries of the mayor and two commissioners? How are they to be paid, anyway?

These spring days are the hay-making ones for the auto salesman and the long, cold winter has caused many a man to long for hours spent speeding through country roads in his own buzz wagon.

The United States senate has decided that Isaac Stephenson is entitled to his seat in the United States senate. Well, the men who voted for him in 1908 take it as a personal justification of their action.

Mr. Underwood has had his say in the House and expressed the democratic views on the wool tariff in plain words that do not need any chart to explain them.

Spring cleaning time is here and a lot of men will find it absolutely necessary to be out of town for several days while the home is upset and the wife and children cross.

Now that the spring appears to be really on the verge of arriving, think over that plan for a garden again and have your seeds already to plant.

There are so many contesting delegations at the coming Chicago republican convention that it may prove to be a twin convention after all.

No government prison will receive the consignment of beef barons delivered crated on hoof for care and treatment.

In this time of political endeavor it is not safe to believe everything the average candidate tells you.

Campaign promises are like campaign elgurs. Liable to burn both ways when smoked.

GERMAN COUNCIL APPROVES NAVY INCREASE MEASURES

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Berlin, Germany, March 28.—The federal council today approved the army and navy bills presented to it on March 22. These provide for a largely increased army and navy.

IMPOSSIBLE THINGS

To make a phantasm play as well at home as it did in the store.

To get in the last word with a life insurance agent.

To keep a woman from writing on both sides of the paper.

To get the buttons in a white vest without breaking one of the commandments.

To look dressed up in hand when you have a ready-made four in hand on.

To understand the telephone conversation of a stenographer who is chewing gum.

To refrain from turning to the sporting page of a newspaper first.

To get a theater seat that suits even if it is the one you asked for.

COMMON SENSE CURE FOR RHEUMATISM.

Rheumatism has for ages been a puzzle to the doctors. Some claim it to be an infection, a germ disease. Others claim that the cause is uric acid, a kidney disease. It is said that uric acid is carried by the blood into the small apertures of the joints and the skin where it crystallizes and it is the small, sharp crystals that cause intense pain which every motion of the body by cutting into the flesh and nerves. Whatever the cause, the best relief known is an Alkaline Elixer of the Sallcyates. The chemical nature of the Sallcyates is to form soluble compounds with the urates. In this way these crystals are dissolved, taken up by the blood and taken out of the body by the kidneys.

This rheumatic elixer is taken in teaspoonful doses in hot water before meals. The cure is often in a day or two, yet the remedy should be taken for some time to thoroughly neutralize the blood and prevent a recurrence of the trouble. The eliminations, as the doctors would say, that is the kidneys and the bowels, should be kept active. Rheumatic Elixer is compounded by Mr. Penning, our Graduate Pharmacist and Chemist, who would be pleased to give you any other information you wish. ## JANESVILLE SALOONS CAN NOT BE OPENED ALL DAY APRIL 2?

Think of That—Assistant Attorney General Hands Down Opinion That a Day is Twenty-four Hours.

Here are and tidings for the persons who usually celebrate on election night when the results are known. If the law is observed in Janesville next Tuesday there will be not one drop of liquor sold from twelve o'clock midnight of April 1 until midnight of April 2. This is due to the opinion handed down this afternoon by Assistant Attorney General Messerschmidt at Madison.

Mr. Messerschmidt holds that the law means that a day is twenty-four hours in length and must be observed in Wisconsin on April 2nd. If the law is observed it will mean that Wisconsin will be dry as a desert all day, just as it is every Sunday. The following is the Associated Press dispatch announcing the sad news:

Madison, March 28.—Saloons in Wisconsin are forbidden from opening on the evening after the closing of the polls on April 2nd, election day. Assistant Attorney General J. E. Messerschmidt gave an opinion today holding that they must remain closed for twenty-four hours from midnight to midnight, a day in the legal significance, including the time elapsed from 1:00 midnight to the following midnight.

THIEVES MAKE VISIT AT SIMPSON STORE

Stole Silk Petticoats And Wrappers From Stock Tuesday Night—No Clue to Robbers.

Thieves gained an entrance to the Simpson store Tuesday night and carried away a number of silk petticoats and over a dozen wrappers. The robbery was not detected until late yesterday when Miss Rogers employed in the office of Dr. Sutherland, notified the proprietors that she had found a pile of suit hangers in the storage closet. The thieves are supposed to have entered by forcing the lock of the revolving door which opens on the second floor corridor. This would enable them to go down a stairway into the rear of the store below, because of the fact that valuable furs and other wearing apparel and the cash register were not disturbed. It is thought that the thieves were amateurs. Chief of Police Appleby made an investigation but found no clue to the robbers.

HAS COPY OF A NEWSPAPER SUPPRESSED BY MAYOR THAT CAUSED ROCK ISLAND RIOT

A. A. Russell has a copy of the Rock Island News which was suppressed by Mayor Schriver of that city, that caused the riots in the Illinois city; and ordering out of the state troops. The paper is an exposure of the alleged vice of the mayor of Rock Island, whom it is alleged, posed as a reformer at home and sought to clear up the city. It is a "red hot" issue and it is no wonder it was suppressed.

DAVERKOSEN HEARING ADJOURNED FOR WEEK

Rush of Work in Federal Court at Madison Probable Cause for Delay in Local Case.

Acting on the request of the United States District Attorney's office at Madison, Federal Court Commissioner Stanley D. Tallman this morning adjourned the hearing of Harry Daverkosen, charged with the fraudulent use of the mails, for one week from today. Meanwhile the federal grand jury which is in session at Madison is examining many witnesses in the Daverkosen case. It is probable that the adjournment today was due to the press of work in the federal court at Madison which made it impossible for Mr. Morcan, the assistant having charge of the case to come to Janesville. Daverkosen is still under the original bond of a thousand dollars for appearance when the case is called.

CELEBRATES WITH A VERY HAPPY PARTY

Miss Margaret Barlass Hostess at Celebration of Her Thirteenth Birthday.

Little Miss Margaret Barlass celebrated her thirteenth birthday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barlass, in the town of La Prairie Thursday in a most pleasing manner. Eighteen of her little friends were present all in costume and many games were enjoyed before the delicious supper which was served during the evening. The dining room was most tastefully decorated with pink and white, pink and white carnations being used for this purpose. The room was lighted by candles and the big birthday cake was lighted with thirteen smaller ones. Those present and the characters they represented, for the most part from Mother Goose rhymes were: Margaret Barlass, The Queen of Hearts; Florence Barlass, Billy; Winifred Barlass, Jack; Dewey Jones, A Trump; Elizabeth MacArthur, Little Boopie; Ross Fitch, Roy Blue; Ivan and Alphonse Doolay, As the Gold Dust Twine; Bessie Stoney, A Gypsy; Katharine Bowman, Miss Muffit; Vera Dodge, A Western Girl; Walden Jones, A Cow Boy; Margaret Irish, A Japanese; Verna Phayor, A Soldier; Gladys Hanson, Old Mother Hubbard; Robert Lester, An Indian. In the pennant contest Margaret Barlass won the honors and the pennant trophy Katherine Boynton and Robert Lester won the honors. The guests all had a most enjoyable evening and departed at a late hour.

INCORRIGIBLE GIRL COMMITTED BY JUDGE

Harriet Millay, Aged Fifteen, Will be Sent to State Industrial School. In Milwaukee.

Harriet Millay, aged fifteen, was this morning committed to the State Industrial School for girls at Milwaukee by Judge Piffard on the complaint of Chief of Police Appleby, made with the consent and approval of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Millay, 466 North Main street. Harriet pleaded guilty to stealing a small sum of money from Bert Dorn, at whose home she was employed. She had nothing to say in her defense. Mrs. Millay, in reply to inquiries made by the Judge, said that her daughter had not beyond her control and that she had heard many reports of her misconduct. Judge Piffard, in pronouncing sentence, said he hoped Harriet would try and mend her ways and learn to be self-respecting and to do useful and honorable work.

CASE OF STATE AGAINST FRANK SHERMAN DISMISSED.

Justice North Takes Action on Motion of District Attorney Dunwiddie—Evidence was Insufficient.

The case of the state versus Frank Sherman of Edgerton, charged with selling and transporting game fish in violation of the game laws, was dismissed by Justice North yesterday on the motion of District Attorney Dunwiddie. The jury had been empaneled and the state's witness, Frank Brown put on the stand when this action was taken. The reason for the dismissal was lack of evidence. The complainant in the case was Game Warden William Mason.

PREPARING FOR ENGLISH STRIKE.

London, England.—Straitious preparations were made prior to the declaration of the coal strike by the various mine owners to prevent any coal famine. At the Crisley Coaling Station, 500 freight trucks were loaded with coal ready for shipment and are now being drawn upon as the occasion demands. The strike is even more serious than was anticipated and is reported to be spreading rapidly to France.

A central figure in the coal strike is Sir G. R. Askwith, chairman of the Trade Dispute Industrial Council, who is trying to end the strike, though so far unsuccessful.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

To The Editor:

In view of the fact that so much has been said lately respecting the proposed ordinance permitting theaters to open and operate on Sunday, and the favorable attitude of some of the members of the Council towards it, let a citizen, taxpayer, and a lover of good government and good citizenship as distinguished from lawlessness, express his views.

"Justice to All." In his article published Tuesday morning, venturing to use the following language by way of introduction: "Noting that there seems to be a determined effort on the part of the highbinders to influence the council to leave the ordinance as it is at present prohibiting theaters on Sunday," etc. Of course it goes without saying that this language is very expressive of the position occupied by that writer and doubtless by many others who are in favor of promoting ordinances, laws and other regulations which in the end will give us a wide open town. The open theater will serve only as the most erect in the lot in which to place the wedge.

The articles lately published regarding the ordinance and the attitude of the council respecting it clearly demonstrates that pressure is being brought to bear by a class at least who are bending all of their energies towards reducing the social aspect of our city to that of the wide open, ungoverned community. And these promoters of the scheme are not only conscious, but openly admit that there are some people, at least, who are opposed to such a move. Who are the "highbinders," so-called by "Justice to All"? Are they the gentlemen who recently appeared before the council and spoke favoring obedience to, instead of violation of the law? And who is the autocrat styling himself "Justice to All" who finds it possible to use such a term against these gentlemen at a time when professing to do a public good and a public service to all of the people of the city by publishing such an article?

Let it be in passing that the citizens who have had the best interests of this city at heart for many years, and who have contributed thousands of dollars to build the edifices such as that provided over by the Rev. Mr. Williams, deserve a better term even in this discussion than that used by the writer whose article appeared in the morning sheet.

Now the law abiding and the law loving citizen has long been aware of the insidious tendency towards the breaking of our Sunday laws. Our candy stores, our cigar shops, many of the saloons, and other places, are kept open directly in violation of the Sunday statute requiring them to be closed. But the good nature of society has rather tolerated than complained about the breach of the law in this respect. It needs no argument to demonstrate this fact. All anybody has to do is to walk down the street at any time during Sunday with his eyes open, and if the open shop would have a tendency to dim the vision he would be stone blind before reaching the bridge on Milwaukee street from either direction.

Now the question occurs as to whether or not a part of the people, a small or a large part, have any rights respecting the question involved. Are their desires regarding a respectful obedience of the laws to be ignored? Are those people who are spoken of by "Justice to All" as "highbinders" and "a small majority of people of puritanical ideas" to be brushed aside without the formality of an excuse or apology and their rights under the law scattered as dust to the wind?

Let the people who love the city and are solicitous for its welfare, look at the facts that they may draw their own conclusions. It must be conceded that some of the people, at least, were startled when the council proposed to amend the state laws by an ordinance permitting exactly what the statute prohibits, and it was also equally startling to observe how favorably the proposition was received by some of the members of that body; also that some of the members of that body were willing to sign instead of defend the laws which, according to their oath of office, if they took one, they are obliged to do.

It is provided by our charter that every person chosen or appointed to an office or place of trust under it shall take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by the constitution to be taken by executive and judicial officers. This oath hinges upon the incumbent of an office the duty not only to observe and obey, but to protect and uphold the laws, rather than become an alder and an applier in breaking them. Every foreigner who adopts this land as his country and applies for citizenship, is required under the federal laws to solemnly take a similar oath, and it is the call of the people today heard echoing and resounding through the land that the office holder and the citizen shall maintain and respect the laws.

Sunday, the first day of the week, has been from the beginning of civilization in America observed as a holy day and one set apart for the purpose of rest and worship. In its local aspect it is regarded as a civil institution and a day appointed by the law making power on which ordinary business shall be suspended, that the moral well being of the people may be advanced. And this is why prohibitory Sunday laws are on the statutes of nearly all the states in the Union and Wisconsin is no exception.

In regard to municipalities the legislature may delegate authority to pass such ordinances as may be necessary to secure the observance of Sunday, but not to violate the observance of, or to desecrate the character of the city of Janesville.

Any person who shall keep open the shop, warehouse or work house, or shall do any manner of labor, business or work, except only works of necessity and charity, or be present at any dancing or gambling, show or entertainment or take part in any sport, game or play on the first day of the week shall be punished by a fine not exceeding ten dollars; and such day shall be understood to include the time between the midnight preceding and the midnight following the said day, and no civil process shall be served or executed on said day.

There are many other prohibitory Sunday laws affording protection to the people in various ways, and experience has shown that those laws are all for the betterment of citizenship, and there are doubtless in Janesville many men and women who respect them and prefer that they should be obeyed, and these people as a matter of right are entitled to the enforcement of such laws by our public officers as a part of their duty, and for the preservation of the peace, happiness and prosperity of the community.

"TRUTH."

Too Literal.

The latest arrival at the Moonshury boarding house was not so much annoyed as disappointed. "When," he said to his landlady, "you told me that you would provide me with board,"—and here he pushed away his half-eaten steak and helped himself to prunes—"I was not aware that you meant it literally."—London Globe.

—Pennsylvania Snake Story.

The latest snake story comes from Elliptonburg, Perry county. Samuel Foose had been milking turkey eggs for some time and finally the chicken nest egg disappeared. A few days ago an old tree was cut down, destroying the home of a six-foot black snake, which was killed. A post mortem resulted in the discovery of the nest egg.—Philadelphia Record.

Hard to Live Up To.

An example of greatness thrust upon one is an eleven-year-old boy living in Hamilton avenue, Yonkers. His name is George Washington. He was born on Christmas day and christened on Easter. The lad sings in the choir of St. Andrew's Memorial church.

Secret Chinese Industry.

Ever since Hongkong was established vermilion making, entirely in the hands of the Chinese, has been an important industry. The secret of manufacture is kept inviolate from European knowledge. The Chinese made artificial cinnamon long before Europe was a civilized country.

Untenable Ground.

"By the way, why do you permit your children to believe in fairies?" "I can't tell them there are no fairies and then expect them to believe in microbes."—Washington Herald.

VEGETABLES HIGHER ON LOCAL MARKETS

Products From Florida and Lower
Illinois Scarce and High Now—
Fish Prices for Tomorrow.

Vegetables which have been shipped in from Florida and southern Illinois
have been so affected by the long,
cold weather that they have gone up to unheard of prices and are very scarce. Parasips are bringing anywhere from a dollar to a dollar and a half a bushel, wholesale, and bring as high as 50c a pound retail. This is higher than they have been at this time of year for a long time and from the reports from authorities the crop is gradually diminishing and the prices will rise even higher. Onions have reached the unprecedented height of 8c a pound.

Eggs are bringing as high as 19c
a dozen, wholesale, these days, and bring from twenty to twenty-two cents
a dozen retail.

Tomorrow's fish prices are quoted.

WE WELCOME CRITICAL HOUSEKEEPERS To Our Opening Display of New Spring Rugs from the Country's Foremost Mills

The new Rugs and Carpets are here--brought direct from the mills whose products are famous the country over for quality, beauty and service. This spring display is of a wider scope than ever before. The assortment of carpet-size rugs embodies more individual styles and sizes than have ever been shown before to the buyers of southern Wisconsin.

Included in this representative display are the magnificent Whittall rugs, noted for their excellence of design, coloring and quality. Whittall rugs show what is possible with the combination of high art and rare skill.

All that is best in Oriental art and wearing is reproduced in our new showing of rugs and carpets. Buy Whittall's Rugs and Carpets and you are SURE of the BEST.

It costs just as much to sell poor rugs as good ones. It costs you more.

WHITTALL ANGLO PERSIAN

The Anglo Persian is the finest rug made on a Wilton loom. The yarns and dyes used in the manufacture are imported and guaranteed to be equal to those in the finest hand made Persian Kermanshah. It is the closest approach to a real rival of the luxurious products of the orient. We show the newest patterns for parlor reception hall, and library, in beautiful designs and rich colorings, made in sizes from 22 1/2x36 inches to 11-3x15 feet.

WHITTALL BODY BRUSSELS

These we are especially pleased to recommend, believing it to be the very best Body Brussels Rug made in this country. They are made from Persian worsted and designed for extra hard service. It is the most popular brand of Brussels Rug ever offered, comes in every conceivable style in colorings that will blend with the decorative scheme in any room in the home. Housekeepers looking for something extra serviceable and easily cared for, should see these rugs before deciding. Made in sizes from 6x9 to 11-3x15 feet.

The Evening Chit-Chat BY RUTH CAMERON

WHAT is it? runs a witty conundrum, "which everyone is willing to give and no one wishes to take?" And the answer, as you perhaps know, is "Advice."

As regards the cold shower bath of honest advice, advice against some beloved project, this conundrum certainly has the truth of it. But that is not the kind of advice which most people ask for or give.

At the embroidery counter of a dry goods store, a woman standing beside me was examining a piece of embroidery. Although the pattern of the piece was most dainty, the material was so extremely sheer as to make the thing very perishable. "That trimming would never do for anything which was to receive much wear so evident that the most ignorant in such matters could hardly have failed to realize it. I verily believe that even a more man would have known it. The woman evidently realized all this, but she couldn't bear to give the thing up. Finally, after having inspected several other embroideries and always returned to this one she appealed to the clerk. "If this were laundered carefully," she questioned, "don't you think it would do for an everyday petticoat?" Even the clerk's desire to make a sale couldn't quite bring an enthusiastic response from her. "It might," she said rather doubtfully. I couldn't stop to see if the woman bought the embroidery or not, but went away meditating on this little example of the way most of us ask advice—not wishing to be told the plain, helpful truth, but in the hope of being assured that what we want to do, and know isn't right.

If you will notice, people seldom ask advice in a direct question. More often they say, "Don't you think so-and-so?" "So-and-so" being what they think, or rather what they want to think. Whereupon the average person, having been given his own opinion, answers promptly that he does think "so-and-so."

Most of us like Elizabeth "wouldn't it play fake and yet wouldn't wrongly win." We want to do what we want to do, and yet we want the approval of our conscience, too. And if our conscience is strong enough to refuse to yield that approval, we are very much inclined to appeal to people to justify the fact.

Fortunate indeed is he who has friends who will not give him that kind of advice, who will ignore the tone of his suggestive questions and the mental influence of his wish to have his desire confirmed, and will really tell him the truth.

Advice like this is a cold shower bath which, unpleasant though its first shock may be, breathes and invigorates, while advice of the other kind is the agreeable warm bath that hinders and soothes, but at the same time enervates.

Fortunate the man or woman, who not only can give such healthful advice, but has the strength of mind to turn away from it.

HEART AND HOME TALKS BY BARBARA BOYD

The Deep, Abiding Joy Of Easter.

THERE is a gladness about Easter quite different from the joy of Christmas. The spirit of Christmas is love; the spirit of Easter, life. Those of us, who really celebrate Easter in our hearts, are glad that we are alive, that life is renewing itself in outward visible forms all about us.

Not many of us think seriously upon the subject of resurrection. We do not go into the matter of Easter deeply enough for this. We just enjoy the celebration of superabundant life in our veins, the stir and activity in the world of nature all about us.

But if we would think of the subject a little more seriously, we would change this superficial, fleeting sensation of happiness into a deep, abiding joy. For the one thing that the most of us hold dear is life. We cling to it desperately. We feel that life, even as we comprehend it now, is the one thing that saves us from annihilation, oblivion. It enables us to stand out as a personality from the blankness before and after. We shiver at the prospect of blankness to come, and clutch desperately at this thing we call life, which holds us from slipping into that blankness.

But what is this thing life, and whence comes it? This is the question asked almost from the beginning of time. Science has demonstrated that it cannot be made even in the most wonderful laboratories. Forms die all about us, but the spirit of life remains undiminished. So what is it, so intangible, so elusive, so full of power, such a giver of joy?

Must there not be some infinite source in which is life an unchangeable and unending force? And does it not flow through us like a current? Rather, is it not ours to possess? And possessing it, are we not eternal? It sweeps us from one experience to another, giving us this form here, that form, there. But just as life itself is inexhaustible, so are we incapable of a death that means extinction.

And if we realize that this is the life we feel so superabundant at Easter, this is the life that is taking form all about us in the world of Nature, haven't we cause for rejoicing? Our sense of satisfaction in it can go as deep as life itself, and to this there is no end. It is the peace, the security, that passeth understanding.

And over and above this force of life there is a mind that guides it. And this mind is also in us. So that this great gift of endless life, we can use in most wonderful ways, if we will. Unlimited possibilities are ours.

And when we think on these things, Easter becomes a wonderful day. Hats and dresses and week-end stir into insignificance. The panorama of eternal life is unveiled before us.

Since the hat put on the side of the cigarette, there have been many substitutes. As above pictured, maline long pointed bow is much in vogue and the angle at which it is worn is the choice of the wearers.

The KITCHEN CABINET

ALIFE spent in brushing and sweeping floors—a life which the proud of the earth would have treated as the dirt under their feet; a life spent at the clerk's desk; a life spent in the narrow shop; a life spent in the laborer's hut, may yet be a life so ennobled by God's living mercy that for the sake of it a living might gladly yield its crown.

ECONOMY IN LIVING.

In these days of high prices it is well to remind ourselves that meat in an expensive luxury that can be cut in two. We do not need so much meat as we usually have served. A pound of meat mixed with vegetables and served as a stew will be as satisfying as a fifty-cent steak which is often only half eaten and thrown out to the dog or into the garbage can.

We eat too much of protein foods. It has been often proven that well-masticated food eaten slowly will satisfy the appetite on a third less than when it is hurriedly eaten. The over-amount taxes the bodily functions and is not only wasted but depletes the system to remove it.

For brain workers easily digested food should be chosen: rice, fish, eggs and cereals are all good.

We want dishes that are good, wholesome and appetizing, and they may be prepared if thought and study is put upon the subject, at a great saving of the pocket book and no difference in the attractiveness of the table.

Codfish a la Mode.—Take a cup of shredded codfish, two cups of mashed potatoes, a can of milk and two eggs well beaten, mix well and bake in a pepper and salt; mix well and bake in a buttered baking dish twenty minutes.

Mountain Dew.—Take a cup of cracker crumbs rolled fine, the yolks of three eggs and a half cup of sugar. Juice and rind of a lemon, three cups of milk, and bake twenty minutes. Beat the whites and put over the top for frosting.

A well-equipped kitchen with all the conveniences for housekeeping is a great pleasure, but we must never get so wedded to it that in an emergency we can not get good results with poor, or no tools at all.

Nellie Maxwell. UP-TO-DATE HOUSEKEEPING.

The Dory Shad Planked in the Oven And Tastily Garnished.

By Allen E. Whitaker.

Shad are caught along the Atlantic coast from Florida to the Province, the January fish coming from the South and the very best of the season are sent from the northern waters. This fish is not moderate in price until about this date and at no time is it an economical fish because half of its weight is in the abundant bones. However, as it is a rich fish a small serving is sufficient.

While the shad is responsive to several ways of cooking we generally think first of baking it. A dripping pan is unnecessary until to use in baking a fish it must be large enough to fill the oven floor in order to be long enough for the fish. A long narrow platter and a gravy boat on a little tray to match is convenient for serving baked or broiled fish.

A planked shad appears on hotel menus but the ordinary home cook knows little about this method of cooking. Fish planks are sold at all large house furnishing or hardware stores and cost all the way from seventy-five cents to several dollars for those with nickel or silver plated holders with handles and into which the plank is slipped before it is taken to the table.

Planks are either maple or oak about one and a quarter inches thick. Some have the form of the body and tail of a fish scooped out of the wood, others have three or four grooves made to allow the juices to drip into the pan below.

The chef demands a fine hot shad about two feet long for baking or roasting as he would call it, and he makes it serve ten people without using any but the thick flesh on the sides. The fish for family use may be not over two-thirds as long or even smaller.

Thin strips of salt pork and shavings of onion are often put on the fish at the place where the tail is driven in then as the plank is lifted a little before the fire, or under the gas flame, the juices that run down are well seasoned and are used for basting the fish.

To plank a shad in the oven plank and split the fish and lay on the plank with the skin side down. Dust with salt and pepper and spread a little soft butter over. This fish is so lacking in fat that butter must be used, or salt pork as mentioned above, set the plank on a dripping pan and into a hot oven. It will take twenty to thirty minutes to bake the fish according to size.

Set the plank on a large platter, pipe mashed potato round the edge, put a scant wreath of parsley inside of the potato and add a few lemon points. A little more seasoning will be needed on the fish.

Shad roe is other liked very much or not at all. To prepare it first put in boiling water to cover with a tablespoon of other lemon juice or vinegar and let stand at simmering point for fifteen minutes. Drain, put into cold water and let stand ten minutes when the roe is ready to cut in pieces, crumb and fry in deep fat or to be heated several minutes in a cream sauce.

Fads and Fashions

New York, March 28.—The coming season will, undoubtedly, be noted for the unusual vogue of taffeta. The shops are full of models of taffeta dresses of every description employed as the principal material of the frocks. Unfortunately taffeta is difficult to manage in such a way as to avoid frizziness. Nine out of ten of the taffeta frocks shown in the shops are unbecomingly frizzy, but the charm usually goes hand in hand with a high price, for it means material of beautiful quality and very skillful making.

Some of the new taffetas are really lovely, though never attaining the flowing suppleness of the crepes and satins, wonderfully light and lustrous, exquisite of line. The Jouy taffetas, which are quite in the best sense of that word, are winning favorable attention, though champagne effects still hold first place. Tulle de Jouy or antique chateau designs have invaded many classes of materials, and whether in cottons, chiffons, crepes, tulle or tulle have a distinct charm, though they must be handled knowingly to give satisfactory results and are quite hopeless if made up along lines unsuited to their peculiar character.

This is especially true of the Jouy tulle. Many of the prettiest have a ground of white checked or striped by hair lines of black, and over this surface quaint sprig designs in odd soft colors are scattered. Admirably pleasant little summer frocks these will make for a certain type of wear, or provided the frocks are made with artistic skill.

The same is true of the Jouy radiance, chiffons, etc., but in a less degree, for here at least no hint of frizziness complicates the problem. Jouy designs in comparatively dark tones have appeared this season even in the thinnest of chiffons and are effectively combined with white or plain one-tone chiffon. Often there is a deep border of this Jouy design on a delicate one-tone chiffon, with perhaps a bordering band of black or of one of the dominant colors in the Jouy design.

Among the tulle frocks attractive striped effects may be found usually in white and color—soft rose, dull old blue, violet, cherry, etc. These striped tulle frocks are successfully made up alone, but the French designers like to combine them with plain tulle, usually though not invariably in the color of the stripes and sometimes with changeable tulle in the stripes color shot with whites and perhaps a touch of color.

There are two sorts of "fingerin'" fabrics in the market now—the heavier flannels, crapes, plaques and bedford cords of which tailored costumes are fashioned, and the clinging soft-silk chiffon stuffs like batiste, moull, voile, marquisette and crepe which go into the making of diaphanous frocks. There is a fancy for garnishing even the tailored costumes with quantities of lace this season, and yards of broad insertions of flit, Chantilly and other heavy laces make simply cut linen suits very dressy affairs, indeed.

The lines of such costumes follow the lines prescribed for tailored suits of worsted, silk and mohair, and coats are short and gay, in cutaway effect, with straight, narrow skirts short enough to reveal the feet. Of course, with all such summer costumes white footwear is the requirement, and this season very trim boots of white buckskin with all tops buttoned with pearl buttons, are considered particularly chic. These white buckskin boots are stylish, for the soft buckskin fits in step and ankle like a glove, and the leather conforms in more supple fashion to the lines of daintily shaped sole and heel than does the stiff canvas. There are also pale tan suede boots and creamy satin boots for wear with lingerie costumes in the new champagne and eeri colorings, which are particularly fashionable this season.

With the very fashionable ones, lingerie materials just off clear white, in other words, in tones of cream, champagne and ecru—are more in favor than white stuffs, which seem to suggest the imitations of a hundred. These creamy tan shades are very subtle and very smart, and somehow they lack the freshness and purity of clear white which is at its best against a background of summer green or the blue of a summer sea. One or two very butte costumes on a clubhouse veranda would be distinguished and charming, but a whole wardrobe full of ecru-colored women would be depressing indeed, whereas white costumes in like number would suggest only sunny daintiness and freshness.

Turned up brims, bent into any shape most becoming to the wearer, sometimes fluted in front, sometimes doubled, are a distinctive detail on the new hats. One model is caught back at the side front with one of the new black willow-shaped ostrich plumes. Among the most expensive of the new styles is a tulle hat with a wide brim, with black inside. One shown in a shop had for its trimming wide loops of shot gray and purple ribbon bent backward, a spray of white crepe roses falling over the brim on the right side.

Brush cockades of nondescript feathers are seen as the sole ornament on fine white tulle straw hats with black upturned brims faced with satin, and the floral clump of either roses, lilies or copper-colored carnations is much favored for large hats of tulle straw with graduated upturned brims.

Very pretty and comfortable are the new two-ounce hats made of tulle silk. The crown, brim and trimming are usually of the same fabric, and with something like eighty-two shades of silk to choose from and with which to form attractive combinations there is little likelihood of these dainty and practical hats showing a smugness. The possibilities for achieving novel

Mrs. Sarah Ament Dodson Teacher of Practical Cookery AT THE Presbyterian Church April 1st to 6th

2:30 P. M., EACH AFTERNOON.

The Course consists of six lessons with demonstrations in practical cookery. ($2.00 for the course or single lesson 35 cents.)

The lessons are given each day for 6 consecutive days. Mrs. Dodson's course of six lessons is conducted on a regular course of twelve lessons, and is the same as given in a course of 12 lessons, costing $10.00 in the Chicago Schools.

Mrs. Dodson's work is just what she claims for it—PRACTICAL. She teaches how to make bread in three hours, to make, raised rolls in one hour. She teaches how to broil a fish as easily as to sear it, and to broil a turkey before stuffing it. She teaches how to make ice cream without turning a freezer, and it is as smooth as velvet, without a grain in it.

Ladies say everywhere that any one lesson is worth the price of the course. The dainty salads, dressing, sauces, entrees, soups, icings, all combine to make the course exceedingly interesting, and at the same time helpful, practical and well worth the time and attention of the best and oldest housekeepers, as well as that of beginners.

effects are greater now than ever before, and so the temptation to increase the number of spring and summer hats in one's wardrobe has grown correspondingly.

The brims of these tulle hats are faced with silk of a bright and becoming shade, and the same color is used to line the inside of the crown. The outside part is trimmed in some sharply contrasting color of tulle. For example, a dark blue seashore hat which is to be worn well down over the head has a two-toned pink lining. The only stiffness is supplied by the wire sewed in at the seams of the melon-shaped crown.

These little hats may be bent and turned into any shape, and when on the head there is nothing to spoil the collar or make one feel conscious of supporting a heavy weight.

Feathers are favored beyond all other trimmings for the dress hat. No price seems too extravagant to invest in these hat trimmings.

CURIOUS BITS OF HISTORY

FIFTH MONARCHY MEN.

By A. W. MACY.

One curious byproduct of the great Revolution in England was the organization known as "Fifth Monarchy Men." These people believed that only the godly are fit to govern, and that all civil authority should be lodged in the church. They believed also that a new reign was near at hand, which should be known as "The Fifth Monarchy," to succeed the Assyrian, the Persian, the Greek and the Roman, during which Christ and his saints should reign on earth a thousand years. They sought to abolish all existing laws, and substitute a simpler code based on the law of Moses. At first they followed Cromwell's government, believing it to be a preparation for the new order of things. But they soon grew tired of waiting for the fulfillment of their hopes, and began to agitate against the government and vilify Cromwell. The arrest and imprisonment of several of their leaders cooled their ardor, and they remained quiet for some time. After the restoration of Charles to the throne they renewed the agitation, and attempted to take possession of London. Most of them were either killed or captured, and eleven of the leaders were executed for high treason. Thus vanished their visions of an impending millennium.

A SCHOOL TEACHER'S GRATITUDE:

Geneva, Iowa.—"I have been teaching school for some years and I have neglected my health because I was too busy with my work to attend to myself properly. I suffered greatly every month and was on the verge of a nervous breakdown.

"I wrote you about my condition and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and the Blood Purifier as you recommended. These remedies have done wonders for me and I can highly and wholly recommend them to every suffering woman."—Miss MISSIE SHAW, R. F. D. No. 1, Geneva, Iowa, c/o Sam Erickson.

A COLORADO GIRL'S CASE:

Montrose, Col.—"I was troubled very much with irregular periods. Sometimes two months would elapse. I suffered severe headache, was weak and nervous, could eat scarcely anything.

"I took both Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier and the result was wonderful. I feel like another person.

"I think you remedies are the best on earth and cannot express my thankfulness to you for what they have done to me. I help my neighbors when they are sick, and I shall always recommend your medicines."—Miss ELLA McCaspley, Montrose, Col.

Is it not reasonable to suppose that a medicine that did so much for these girls will benefit any other girl who is suffering with the same troubles?

Does it not seem the only sensible thing to give such a medicine at least a trial? You may be sure that it can do you no harm, and there are lots of proof that it will do you much good.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine, made from roots and herbs. It has restored so many suffering women to health.

BACKWARD SPRING IS DELAYING ROAD WORK

Work Which Was Started on County Highways March 17 In 1911 Postponed A Month This Year.

"This is very backward spring for county road work," said county highway commissioner S. H. Jones of Clinton who was in the city yesterday. Mr. Jones pointed to the fact that he had his road machinery out and at work on the 17th of March last year while present indications point to a delay of two or three weeks from the present time.

Mr. Jones is planning an extensive road building and road repairing campaign this season. The state highway aid money which is apportioned to Rock county for use this year will increase the inducement to build nearly one-third. "We will build close to forty miles of highway this season," said Mr. Jones, "and there is a considerable amount of repair work to be done which will be practically new road."

"Phase four" road construction in the various townships for the coming summer are not entirely completed and will not be until after the coming spring election when the men who will have charge of the work are determined to push the same. Most of the towns, however, took advantage of the state aid last summer and held special meetings to raise funds in accordance with the terms of the measure.

Most of the towns will vote on the state aid proposition at the regular town meetings next Tuesday, and undoubtedly all will be in line for road improvements in 1913. Mr. Jones stated today that he did not believe the highway law would hinder the road work in Rock county. He felt sure that this county would be left practically to itself in the matter of perfecting its highway system and state interference will be necessary in the minimum. This matter of a state and highway system of roads brought forth considerable discussion at the January meeting of the county board.

POSSESSES A RARE WAR TIME NEWSPAPER

Major Charles W. Stark Has Copy of Last Newspaper Printed in Vicksburg Before Capture by Grant.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Brevet Major Charles William Stark of the town of La Prairie has in his possession a rare memento of the war of the rebellion, a copy of the last newspaper published in Vicksburg previous to its capture by General Grant, July 4, 1863. It is "The Daily Citizen," published by J. M. Swords. Major Stark, who was then first lieutenant in Company F, 33d Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry, was that day on picket duty and learning of the publication of the paper, stepped into the office to secure a copy. The paper is published on wall paper, it being impossible to secure any print paper through the Union lines that had closed in around the city.

"The Daily Citizen" of this issue consists of one sheet, about 26 by 12 inches in size, on which is printed four columns of war and military news and comment. Two columns are given up to editorials. The subjects covered upon are deaths of prominent people; the attack of General Grant, and extortionate prices charged for provisions. The victories of Lee in Virginia are treated at some length, and complaint is made of the "discipline" of some of our company officers in allowing their men to prowl around, day and night, and partake of fruit, vegetables, chickens, etc., from our citizens. One column devoted to war news dispatches is entitled "Yankee News From All Points."

The following paragraph was written just before the capture of Vicksburg, and the succeeding one immediately afterward:

"On this 4th of July the great Ulysses—the Yankee Generalissimo, surrounded by his army, has expressed his intention of dining in Vicksburg on Saturday next, and celebrating the 4th of July by a grand dinner and so forth. When asked if he would invite General Jackson to join, he said: 'Not for four there will be a row at the table.' Ulysses must get into the city before he dines in it. The way to cook a rabbit is 'first to catch the rabbit.'"

CLINTON MAN TAKES MILWAUKEE POSITION

C. C. Smith of Firm of Smith and Holm Will be Secretary of Wambold Manufacturing Co.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Clinton, March 27.—C. C. Smith has accepted the secretaryship of the Wambold manufacturing Co., Milwaukee makers of the special machinery for paper mills. He will assume his new duties the first of next week, but Mrs. Smith and children however will not move to the city until school closes. Their many friends will regret exceedingly that they are to leave Clinton, where both have lived all their lives, and have always been held in high esteem by the entire community. Mr. Smith has served the city as mayor one term and two terms as alderman with great credit to himself, and until a few weeks ago he was secretary and general manager of the Smith and Holm Manufacturing Company, which he organized and established, but he sold his interest a short time ago to his partner, Mr. A. Holm. Mr. Smith has been prominent in lodge circles, being a past chancellor commander K. of P., and has represented this lodge as delegate to the State Conclave several times. Mrs. Smith has been very prominent in Clinton's social life and has rightly deserved the reputation of one of our social leaders. Universal regret is felt that Clinton is to lose this most excellent family and the best wishes of all go with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McMillan of Chicago spent Sunday here, guests of Mesdames Elizabeth and Anna Smith.

Miss Anna Latta is reported as some better.

The Village Board meet Monday night and among other business fixed the officers' salary making that of clerk $150 per year and treasurer the same amount.

Comrade A. S. Isham continues to improve which will be glad news to his numerous friends.

STEPHENSON HOLDS HIS SEAT IN SENATE

Vote of 40 to 34 Cast in Favor of Aged Wisconsin Senator—La Follette Votes Against Him.

By a vote of 40 to 34, Senator Isaac Stephenson of Wisconsin, today was declared elected to his seat by the United States Senate in Washington. This ends a long fight in which there were three investigations, revelations of $107,793 spent by the Senator in the primary campaign of 1908 and charges of the illegal use of money. Senator Robert M. La Follette left a sick bed to cast his vote against his colleague.

The fact that the vote was so close as taken in Washington is an indication that Senator William Lorimer of Illinois will lose his seat. In the Stephenson Senatorial investigation it was shown that, while vast sums of money were spent, there was no definite proof that there had been bribery. In the Lorimer investigation, it is pointed out, there was much more sensational testimony, more evidence pointing to the illegal use of money and the confession of five who said they were paid for their votes.

See Lorimer's Defeat. As a result of this, it is believed by many in Wisconsin, enough Senators who voted for Stephenson will be opposed to seating Lorimer to make his defeat certain. A change by four Senators, according to today's balloting, would end Lorimer's reign.

Postponement of action on the case of Senator Lorimer until 11 o'clock tomorrow was announced by the Lorimer investigating committee. Second to the Lorimer investigation, that of Senator Stephenson has aroused the greatest interest in Washington and throughout the country. In Wisconsin members of the Legislature are instructed in the primary election as to how the people when they vote for United States Senator, Mr. Stephenson, then Senator now Governor, and by several other Republicans. He had been elected the year before to fill the unexpired term of John C. Spooner, who had resigned.

Stephenson won in the primary, but did not at first have sufficient votes to win. It was charged that his election finally was due to the votes of three Democrats. Three investigations made. An investigation was first started by the State Senate, following which the United States Senate began an investigation, the committee reporting to the Senate that Stephenson's election was legal. Later another investigation was demanded. This was conducted in Milwaukee last fall, the committee reporting to the Senate in February. Seven members declared his election legal, while five, in a minority report, declared the use of $107,793 in the campaign could not mean anything but corruption.

Senator Stephenson is eighty-three years old and is many times a millionaire. He served in Congress from 1882 to 1889, at the beginning of Senator La Follette's fight in Wisconsin. Stephenson died in 1902.

Sept. 1—Primary election gives Stephenson majority of more than 50,000 votes.

1909.

Jan. 26—Legislature in joint session gives Stephenson 65 votes, one short of election. Dispute over wording of Journal. Senator Blaine's resolution demanding investigation of primary election by committee of three senators and three assemblymen adopted by Senate.

Jan. 29—Stephenson receives 63 votes, 3 short of election.

Feb. 1—La Follette enters fight by demanding impartial investigation in magazine editorial.

Feb. 2—Chairman E. A. Edmonds of Stephenson campaign committee demands investigation, declaring Stephenson has been misrepresented.

Feb. 5—Legislative conference committee agrees to probe unlawful, not excessive use of money in primary.

Feb. 8—Stephenson, in Milwaukee, declares he was elected Jan. 26, and will present his credentials.

Feb. 11—Stephenson's election expense account filed, showing expenditures of $107,793.65 mostly for organizing outside of Milwaukee.

Feb. 16—Stephenson before investigating committee four hours.

Feb. 17—Revised expense accounts show six candidates spent $192,663.16 in primary.

March 4—In joint session of legislature Stephenson elected by receiving 63 of 125 votes cast on twenty-third ballot.

April 13—Last meeting of joint committee of investigation. Senate investigating committee begins sessions.

May 21—Senate committee completes sessions.

1910.

March 18—Assembly members of joint committee adopt report and file it with Governor.

Jan. 18—Gov. McGovern sends report to legislature. Joint resolution introduced by Senator Hastings, requesting United States Senate to investigate election of Senator Stephenson.

Jan. 24—Resolution sent to committee on Judiciary.

April 26—Committee reports substitute resolution which is adopted.

June 1—Adoption of amended resolution recommended.

June 7—Resolution adopted by Senate.

June 20—Resolution concurred by assembly.

June 24—Resolution enrolled.

The class has just completed a course in the Stoddard travel lectures and at its next meeting will discuss woman's suffrage. The leader for the affirmative will be Mrs. W. H. Judd, and for the negative, Mrs. T. S. Nolan.

JUST A HINT TO THE VARIOUS CANDIDATES FOR CITY OFFICE.

One of the laws passed by the last legislature is known under the title of the Corrupt Practices act and the following citations may be of interest and help to some of the candidates in the present campaign:

Chapter 556-1911 Statutes, Sec. 24-12. No express election day.

"No person or personal campaign or party committee shall pay or incur any obligation, express or implied, to any sum of money or thing of value whatever, or services to be performed on the day of any primary or election in behalf of any candidate or party measure to be voted upon at any primary or election, or for any political services performed on such day or for any loss of time or damage suffered by the attendance at the polls at the primary or election or in registering for voting or for the expense of transportation of any voter to or from the polls on such day."

Sec. 94-101. No person shall publish, issue or circulate or cause to be published, issued or circulated otherwise than a newspaper as provided in subsection 1, of section 91-15, any literature or any publication tending to influence voting at any election or primary, which fails to bear on the face thereof the name and address of the author, the name and address of the candidate in whose behalf the same is published, is issued or circulated, and the name and address of any other person causing the same to be published, issued or circulated. (1911 c. 556.)

Memories Perpetuated

The custom of preserving the memory of our cherished dead has been handed down to us from earliest antiquity. Each race has had some manner of keeping alive thoughts and memories of their departed. The Pyramids of Egypt, The Mounds and Totem Poles of the American Indian stand out as examples. Present day custom favors the erection of a monument of marble or granite, fittingly carved, over the grave of the beloved one.

When the time comes for you to select a monument, it would be best for you to come here. You'll choose but one monument, naturally you want the best. You'll find many designs in beautiful granites and marbles at this shop. The workmanship on the monument you choose will be executed by experts.

YOU KNOW THE QUALITY OF OUR WORK.

PRESS COMMENT.

Let the Women Say.

Wausau Record-Herald: The suggestion that the question of women's suffrage be submitted to the women of Wisconsin at the primary election is one which, in the absence of some objection, not yet apparent, looks good. Unless the women want to vote, the ballot should not be shoved on them. How is the public to know what the real sentiment of the women is? A few are doing all the talking.

As a rule, one suffragette can make more noise than the "ninety and nine" who have not gone astray. Let the ninety and nine be heard from. If they want the ballot, and say so, the ratification of the suffrage amendment this fall will be a mere formality, a foregone conclusion. If they do not want it, the agitators will have little ground to stand on. Let the women say!

Growth From Within.

Madison Journal: A city, however, must grow from within rather than from without. The city itself must show industrial effort. Mayor Schuchert struck the keynote of Madison's industrial need when in his address at the New Park Hotel dinner last night he said that Madison should follow the example of other progressive and thriving cities in the enlistment of a paid secretary for a business men's association, a secretary whose duty it should be to put in 365 days of the year in looking after the interests of the city and in advertising its advantages throughout the country.

The World Do Move.

Fond du Lac Commonwealth: A Methodist minister at Kenosha has devised a plan to combat the influence of the questionable dance hall, by offering the use of St. Matthew's Guild hall to be used by young people for dances under the proper safeguard. All of which goes to show that the world does move, as it hasn't been so very long since the average Methodist minister felt it his duty to object to dancing whether it was "properly safeguarded" or not.

A Legislative Novelty.

Stoughton Courier-Herald: Have you read the "corrupt practices act"? If you haven't, and you delight in legislative novelties, and enjoy wading through pains, penalties and forfeitures ten feet deep, you will enjoy reading this and thinking about it afterwards. Why the blame thing is a brain fall of fines, forfeitures and impositions. Reads as if it were made for savages, or crooks. And yet this law is the product of men who profess unifying devotion to and unswerving confidence in the dear people!

The Bold Milkman.

Nothing makes a man more blood-thirsty than to have served in the militia in time of peace.

C. A. Giesmer, 21 Ontario St., Itasca, N. Y., has recovered from a long and severe attack of kidney trouble, his cure being due to Foley's Kidney Pills. After detailing his case, he says: "I am sorry I did not learn sooner of Foley's Kidney Pills. In a few days my backache completely left me and I felt greatly improved. My kidneys became stronger, dizzy spells left me and I was no longer annoyed at night. I feel 100 per cent better since using Foley's Kidney Pills." Tonic in action, quick in results. Scores of owners of good-looking planters have been doomed to disappointment by the clutch—but not with ours. As the clutch is usually the first part to give trouble, we put a trouble-proof clutch on the Rock Island No. 1. It is the only automatic driving clutch and variable device that will successfully stand use and abuse.

Inspect this marvelous planter the next time you are in town. Better make it your special business to see us at once.

If you don't want to buy, no harm done; if you do want to buy, we will make you a right price.

PHYSICAL CULTURE GIRLS IN EXHIBIT

High School Girls' Gym Classes Give Program Under Direction of Miss Cuyler.

Fifty members of the High School girls' gym classes gave an exhibition drill before a crowd numbering several hundred last evening at the school gym. Physical culture work is compulsory for the freshmen girls and many of the upper classesmen take it of their own accord under the direction of Miss Cuyler, and these classes entertained their parents and friends last night with an exhibition of the different kinds of work they are doing along physical culture lines.

As the girls marched onto the floor at eight o'clock at the beginning of the performance they presented a pretty sight, the freshmen all in blue suits, and the other classes in white. After a short period of calisthenics by the combined classes led by Miss Cuyler, the freshmen took the floor and presented the Swedish dances, "The Mountain," "I See You" and "Lullaby," which drew the heartiest applause from the audience.

The upper classes next delighted the audience with one of the prettiest exhibitions of the sort which has ever been given in the local high school, when they executed the different dumb bell drill by Pizzicato and followed it with a fancy Indian club drill. This class gave three Swedish dances, "The Dance of Greeting," "The Ace of Diamonds," and the "Shoemaker" all of which were fully appreciated by the spectators. A Bohemian dance by the name of Strawsik was followed by a Norwegian march in which the girls danced in groups of three, both receiving the hearty applause of those present.

In a game of center ball which followed between the Senior girls on one side and the underclass girls forming the other team, the latter were successful and won the game by a score of two to one after a desperate and closely contested fight. This concluded the program.

Those who attended the performance came away with nothing but the highest praise for the work of the girls under the direction of Miss Cuyler who as their instructor during the past year deserves all of the congratulations which were given her and the girls.

A Corn Planter That Almost Thinks Earns Cost in One Season—Come in and See It

We are agents for this wonderful machine—a planter that enables you to realize on every atom of soil-nourishment. It increases the size of your crop—it increases the value of the land. Earns cost in single season—cuts down labor—saves time—so simple in construction, so durable in its vital parts that it can be operated successfully by anyone.

Plants Evenly Regardless of Speed

This machine solves the entire problem. No matter how fast or how slow your horses walk, the distance between each hill is always the same. This is accomplished by a positive force feed valve that regulates the drop. This means straight rows. Seeds are chosen, counted and planted with all the dexterity and accuracy of the human fingers. Every hill gets the number of seeds you want. This accuracy of drop is the result of over 25 years' actual experience. Tests prove this accuracy unequalled. Furthermore, the Rock Island No. 1 has a marvelous

SIDEWALK SKETCHES.

THE WEAKER SEX.

By Howard L. Hann.

The weaker sex is a term applied to women by men who never startle any body by earning more than $8 a week.

It is generally used to open and close a debate, shows how much better a woman can stand twelve hours a day in the rear of a man than eight hours behind the counter. It is a very convincing argument with people who are accustomed to think in relays. Since women began to take all the prizes in scholarship and the new arts, including the culture of the pigeon-toed bull pup

Anxious Father: "What is it, Doctor, a boy or girl?"
The Doctor: "Seven boys and thirteen girls."

FORTY YEARS AGO

Janesville Gazette, March 28, 1872.—Another one of those "excellent" dog fights occurred this morning on North Main street. The champion canine of the old Morris House premises had a head put on him and a leg partially taken off, much to the delight of the weaker sex which have suffered from his bullying nature. We viewed this combat from afar, of course, because we don't believe these little matheas are safe since yesterday's experience on Jackson and Smith corner. An individual for whom we have the greatest regard just missed the harbor side of his face by the accidental discharge of a shotgun in the hands of an excited dog fancier. If the weapon had been better aimed we would have never caused to regret the facial sacrifice which would have resulted from that mixing up of fighting bulldogs and loaded shotguns. Let us have peace.

A set of the new American encyclopedia has been purchased for the use of the public schools. The price is the same and the mill pond disappeared last night. It became too heavy to float and quietly went to the bottom. A portion of the late improvements on Milton avenue have been carried away by running water. The drains and small culverts when filled with ice are not first class conductors. The prairie east of the city was covered with wild ducks and geese yesterday. Worried from their long flight they settled down upon the molting snow to take a rest. The republican primary election for the purpose of placing before the people the candidates for the city of Jansville for the ensuing year, takes place tomorrow afternoon.

GIVES DESCRIPTION OF POULTRY HOUSE FOR SMALLER FLOCK

One Type of House Which Will Prove Serviceable in the Back Yard Quarters.

(By F. J. Holt.)

The weather of the past few days signifies that the work of the poultry season is here. There will soon be rainy days to contend with and the little chicks as well as the breeders need protection from the cold spring rains. Therefore it is time to carefully look after the house to question. Some have new houses to build, while others must correct faults of the old one. Then, too, there are the small chick coops to be looked after and if possible they must be of such a character that they will serve for the entire season.

We will take up the matter of the house best adapted to the back yard where only a few birds are kept and the Philo method is not being used. One of the most popular as well as the cheapest is the shed roof house. It but twenty or thirty birds are kept the house should be twelve to sixteen feet deep, seven feet high at the front and five feet at the rear, and twenty to thirty feet long. Of course, if all the fowls are to be kept together the house need not be as long as that, but be sure to provide four square feet of space for each fowl that you expect to keep in that house. The front should be so arranged that one-third is glass, one-third boarded and the other one-third open in the summer time and covered with muslin in the winter. With this arrangement there is but little danger of frostbite and the birds will keep healthy and be rugged when they are let out in the spring. This will also be an aid in getting more eggs when the cold days of winter are with us. At the rear of the building, two feet from the ground, have the dropping boards and the waste six inches above the dropping board and all waste on the same level. If the house is made of single board thickness it will be a wise thing to seal that part back of and above the waste. The top of the building can be tar papered and thus the house will be warm enough at all times and the tar paper will act as a disinfectant at the same time. Place all upper sashes of your windows on hinges and have them swing out. Then have the lower sash so that they will slide up and down. Put the door in the end side if possible and place nests either the end of waste side. Provide muslin curtains that may be dropped down in front of the windows in the winter time if necessary. Do not put in a floor, but let the birds have free use of the earth. This house will not be an expensive one and will serve the city lot owners or the man who may have even an acre of ground. Of course, the house is to face the south and on account of the single shed roof all the water will be thrown to the rear of the building.

There are other types of houses that may be used with much success, but they will cost more money to build. It is far better to put what money you can into good birds than to put it into expensive buildings and then let them die with poor stock. The Tolman house, the monitor type, the double roof structure and others may make a better appearing building than the one I have described above but they will be more expensive.

The house as described can be divided into two apartments and one section used for setting hens early in the spring and after the hatch the hens can take care of the chicks in this section when the rainy days come. But it is a wise thing to prepare a few houses for the hens and chicks. The best small house that I have ever seen for this purpose was as follows:

The floor was built upon legs four inches high. This floor was three feet long and two feet wide. The house was two feet high in front and one and one-half feet high in the rear. The front had three doors. One was a door of iron bars through which the chicks could go, the second a screen door for protection against rats and the like at night, the third was a wooden door to protect against sudden storms. The upper two inches in the front was left open except for the covering of screens over it. This latter opening was the means of ventilation when the wooden door was closed. Then there was a small run in front of the house and about six feet long. This house could be moved around as often as necessary and the grass under the house would not be killed because the floor of the house was four inches above it. Anyone can easily make one of these chick buildings and you will find that it is one of the handiest obtainable.

WONDERFUL SCENES ON HOWE'S PROGRAM

Pictures Taken on Peaks of Snow-capped Alps, Review of Navy, Italian Scenes, and Many Others.

Lyman H. Howe's motion picture program drew another large crowd at the Myers theatre last evening. The large range of the program and the unparalleled excellence of the scenes were sure to please every taste and arouse a determination on the part of each spectator to see another Howe program whenever the chance came. Many of the scenes were unsurpassing in their grandeur and unusual beauty and brought forth admiration for the camera artist who risked his life to secure glimpses of the world never before seen on the picture screen. The journey through the snow-capped Alps, including views of the Waterhorn suspension railway, of the high Alpine peaks, and views of the rolling clouds photographed from the lofty pinnacles above, together with a view of a sunset with wonderful color effects.

Realistic pictures of the United States naval review was another film of interest. The great vessels of our navy were shown lavishly decked for the great occasion while deck scenes showed several of the naval and government authorities. The booming of the salutes was very vividly shown with the aid of the machinery in the rear of the screen.

Another series of pictures which were highly interesting gave views of the Italian cities of Florence, Pisa with the leaning tower and cathedral, Rome with its picturesque ruins, and then another wonderful scene of the rolling volumes of smoke in and above the crater of Mt. Aetna.

A ride through the Colorado Canon was not the least of the pictures, while hunting from an aeroplane, a ride in a hydro-aeroplane, were other pictures of interest. A number of amusing sketches, several brief comedies, and subjects of a lighter vein

At The Theatre

ROSALIND AT REDGATE.

Morelth Nicholson's latest novel, "Rosalind at Redgate," which in dramatized form will be the offering at the Myers Theatre on Saturday, March 30, is described as a "near neighbor" to "The House of A Thousand Candles." In this new story he has written a buoyant romance even more fascinating, witty and charming than its famous predecessor.

Redgate is near Glenarm House on Lake Annamalee, the grounds made famous in "The House of A Thousand Candles," but it is an original story and play, not a sequel, for Larry Donovan, the hero of the new play is the only character who reappears.

The brave, witty Irishman steps from second fiddle to first readily enough, and plays his own game as successfully as he did his friend's. The story—there are two of them—is a charming girl's, but the mystery in their lives makes winning them an exciting task. Through adventure after adventure the romance proceeds to an unusual climax. Mr. Nicholson's characters, always human and lovable, have never been drawn to better advantage than in this new play. The dialogue is keen, the humor lively, and it is filled with that irrepressible optimism of the Nicholson plays.

"Rosalind at Redgate" should prove one of the most enjoyable offerings seen at the Myers theatre this season.

SHAKESPEARE'S TOMB OPENED.

The announcement that Southern gave the program an agreeable balance and added to the general effectiveness of the entertainment.

Something should be said of the sound effects which made the pictures the more realistic. Even conversation was carried on seemingly by the persons seen on the screen through the clever work of the vortrillogists behind the scenes. The roar of the ocean waves, the booming of the cannon, the noise of machinery, was all brought out in a wonderful manner by means of the apparatus which was so effectively operated. The piano music was all adapted to the various films, showing the care with which Mr. Howe arranges his programs.

and Marlowe would appear here in Shakespearean repertoire during the present season has aroused a very unusual interest in Shakespeare. Mr. Southern lately made the astonishing statement that despite the poet's request on his tomb—that his bones be not disturbed,—that it had been opened on two occasions. Charles Knight, the famous Shakespearean scholar, was a witness of the opening of the tomb when the church at Stratford was restored, and congratulated himself on having seen the remains of the bard. But this, it appears, was the second opening of the tomb. In the Monthly Magazine of 1818 there appeared the following:

"Notwithstanding the anathema pronounced by the Bard on any disturber of his bones, the church wardens were so negligent a few years ago as to suffer the sexton, in digging the adjoining grave of Davonport, to break a large cavity into the tomb of Shakespeare. Mr. ——— told the writer that he was excited by curiosity to push his head and shoulders through the cavity, that he saw the remains of the bard, and that he could easily have brought away his skull, but was deterred by the curse which the poet invoked on anyone who disturbed his remains."

In October 1883, Dr. Hagley, then one of the life trustees of the birth place of Shakespeare, proposed that the remains be exhumed in order to compare the poet's skull with the bust in the church. His request was denied."

Altogether Different.

A parish minister on his rounds was approaching a country cottage, when he was met by two small parishioners coming toddling out of it. One of them, a little fellow of about four, cheerfully hailed the reverend gentleman with a friendly, "Hello, man!" "Where, Tammy," was the whispered rebuke of the other, who was a year or two older, "that's no man; that's a minister."

Penalty of Wealth.

The cures which are the keys to riches hang often so heavily at the rich man's girdle that they clog him with weary days and restless nights, when others sleep quietly. —Lance Walton.

Robbed of Distinction.
Mary and her brother Albert had been ill for several days. Their grandmother, in telling a friend who called about their illness said that Mary had some fever, but that Albert had none. After the friend had gone Albert, who had overheard the conversation, said in a tearful voice: "Grandmother, how would you like it if you were ill and someone said you had no fever?"

So Settled.
"Yes, I am opposed to American girls marryin' foreigners," said old Mrs. Sipes. "I'm jist that opposed to it that if my girls can't marry people of their own sex they needn't marry at all, and that's all there is about it!" —Lippincott's.

A COLD, LA GRIPPE, THEN PNEUMONIA.

Is too often the fatal sequence, and coughs that hang on weaken the system and lower the vital resistance. H. G. Collins, Postmaster, Barre, Vt., was troubled with a severe la grippe cough. In saying, "I would be completely exhausted after each fit of violent coughing, I bought a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and before I had taken it all, the coughing spells had entirely ceased. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound can't be beat. It stops the cough by healing the cause. Refuse substitutes. Badger Drug Co.

Higher Up.

"He seems to be quite a big man in politics now. I suppose he has got over his old habit of stooping for bribes?" "Oh, yes. They hand them up to him now." —Puck.

The Limit.

"He absolutely lacks the business instinct." "Does he?" "Why, he'd have no more idea of business than to open a garage in Venice." —Chicago Record-Herald.

ALL THE BEST IN GLADIOLI

NEW TYPE OF GLADIOLI KUNDERDI "GLORY" WITH "RUFFLED" PETALS.

The broadly expanded, wide open flowers, paired by twos, all face in the same direction and are carried on straight stout stalks, fully 3½ feet. From three to eight of these handsome flowers are open at one time. Each petal is exquisitely ruffled and fluted.

The color is a delicate cream pink, with almost attractive crimson stripes in the center of each lower petal, the shade of which is unique in Gladioli. The ruffling of the petals in this new strain has attracted much attention the country over. It is claimed by the grower, who has worked out this type, that later on he will have a wide range of colors in this class. He claims distinctness in form, even as the "Spencer" types of Sweet Peas exceed the old forms.

"Ruffled Glory" is in bloom. Grand does not express it. It is the 'sans pareil' of all gladioli." Price each 15c, doz. $1.50.

America. Conceded to be the one of the finest varieties for cutting or bedding ever sent out; color a beautiful soft flesh-pink; orchid-like in its coloring and texture; growth and habit perfect. 10 cents each; 75c per doz.; $5.50 per 100.

Golden Queen. Now, bright cream color, with a clean cut diamond-shaped blotch of carmine. Holds its strong color better than most yellows after maturing. The flower is wide open and of good quality. Each 15c, doz. $1.50.

Klondike. Clear primrose yellow with a blotch of vivid crimson. A vigorous plant of 15 buds with 4 to 5 open at once. Early and very desirable. 10c each, $1.00 doz.

Mrs. Francis King. A very large flame pink. Long spike of 18 buds with 6 to 8 open at once. A magnificent variety. 10c each, 75c per doz.

Brenchleyensis. Vermillion scarlet. Much in demand on account of brilliant color. 35c per doz. Augusta. The leading commercial white often tinted lavender. Anthers blue. Strong spike often branched. 35c per doz.

May. A charming pure white finely flaked with bright crimson. Early bloomer. 35c per doz. Victory, one of the best red bar. 35c per doz.

Pres. Taft, the largest variety grown. $15 each. Best Mixed Gladioli, 25c per doz.
